

GENERAL PROVISIONS (cont'd)

- SUICIDE - If the life insured dies by suicide less than two years after the date of the application for the policy or for a reinstatement, the pertinent provisions of the Insurance Code shall apply. Where death benefit is not payable, Sun Life will pay only the sum of premiums paid, plus the cash value of dividends less advances with interest.
- CURRENCY - Philippines Pesos, lawful money of the Republic of the Philippines.
- PLACE OF PAYMENT - Sun Life's office in Makati, Philippines which is the place of issue.
- PAYMENT OF GUARANTEED VALUE - Sun Life on written request will pay the guaranteed value of the policy plus the cash value of any dividends less any advances with interest. Payment of this amount terminates the policy.
- ADVANCES - Sun Life on written request will make an advance. The maximum advance is the guaranteed value of the policy plus the cash value of any dividends less interest on the advance to the date the next premium is due.

The value available for an advance is reduced by any existing advances with interest.

Interest is charged on advances at a specified rate of interest, not more than the maximum allowed by law, to be determined by Sun Life from time to time but not more often than once a year, subject to the approval of the Commissioner. Interest accrues daily and is payable yearly.

Unpaid interest will be added to the advance.

When advances and interest equal the guaranteed value plus the cash value of dividends the policy terminates.

- PREMIUM ADVANCE - An unpaid premium will be paid automatically by an advance. If the available advance is less than the full premium due date is less than the full premium due date, the advance will be used to continue the policy in force as long as possible; Sun Life will advise the owner by written notice as to the length of time during which the policy will so continue in force.

87-509

Under the provision of Section 226
of the Insurance Code of 1978 (PD No. 1460)

March 24, 1988